Treasury Wins Game From Interstate Boys

Downey Pitches Fine Game, Fanning Twelve-Work Of Mortimer at Short Features Contest. Other Amateur Sports.

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY O
In one of the prettiest games of the season, Treasury defeated Interstate in the Treasury League yesterday, 4 to 1. The game was closely contested throughout, each team having scored one run in seven imnings. In the eight Sigourney saught one just right and the ball sailed
over Left Fielder Dunbar's head for a homer. In the ninth Treasury in-treased the lead by sending over a couple of runs.
Mortimer's work in the short field for interstate and a catch of a foul fly by Calloway were the features of the game.
The contest was played in the fast time
of one hour and twenty-five minutes.

Special to The Washington Herald. Chicago, May 2L-The syn Chicago, May 21.—The syndicate of London sporting men, who have been bidding for the Willie Ritchie-Freddie Welsh match have accepted the terms of the champion through their representative. Bob Vernon. Willie at first demanded $50,000 of the London people. Later he offered to make the trip for $55,000, with the privilege of 50 per cent over a $20,000 genrantre, this to cover all privileges. This was accepted.

SCHAEFER MAKES A BIG HIT ADDISON SCHOOL IS SECOND

Young McCue, of Baitimore, handed Kid Egan, of this city, a scientific lacing last night in the main bout of the Ardmore Club's boxing exhibition, the Baitimore battler being awarded the decision by Referee O'Connor after fifteen rounds. Egan was never a contender. McCue started after the local boy in the opening started after the local boy in the opening seasion, and had everything his own way throughout the engagement. Egan started after the local boy in the opening seasion, and had everything his own way throughout the engagement. Egan showed flashes of his old-time form, but was unable to stand the pace.

In the semi-wind-up, between Young Thomas and Kid McCauley, the bout was stopped by Referee O'Connor in the second round and awarded to Thomas. McCauley was in no shape to box, and was clearly beaten by Thomas.

The opening bout of the show, between Carl Herz and Roughhouse Spriggs, gave Germany Schaefer a chance to display his ability as a dancer. After tangoing through four rounds, Schaefer proceeded to count Spriggs out in the fifth session. Herz hammered Spriggs all over the ring and put over the "K. O." punch in a clever manner. The next show will more than likely see Jack McMahon and Tommy Lowe swapping punches in the main "go."
